“Fairygodmother Foundation’s Boo Ball is the best Halloween party in Chicago. This year, we expect more than 400 guests to party amidst the artifacts at the eclectic Salvage One,” said Bonnie Tunick, executive director of Fairygodmother Foundation, which will receive all the proceeds from the event. The Foundation grants wishes for loved ones with terminal illness to create happier memories for their families and friends.

From 7 to 11:30 p.m., guests will be able to kick off their weekend with a frightfully fun evening. In addition, there will be a silent auction featuring extraordinary prizes for the lucky bidders.

The mission of Fairygodmother Foundation is to grant last wishes for loved ones (18 and older) diagnosed with a terminal illness who have one year or less to live. In just under five years, this Lincoln Park-based, grass-roots organization has facilitated nearly 300 wishes for families in need. The Foundation currently operates from donated space in Lincoln Park Hospital.
